Thanks to the advantage of the supply webbing system which is located in the central region of Taiwan, TAICHUNG. It is an integration of a variety of industries including precision machinery, metalworking, ICT, optoelectronics, medical equipment and warehousing, etc. It provides the diversity of resources and the richness of business opportunities.

Productive revenue of Taiwan's Machine Tool Industry came to US$5 billion in 2008, and ranked 5th in the world. Taiwan is the 4th largest exporting country of the world. More than 40,000 CNC machine tools per year were sold worldwide, ranking the 2nd largest volume in the world.

Taiwan is also the 5th largest importing country of the world. The demand of ICT industry and semiconductor industry accounts for 97% of Taiwan's machinery equipment importing in recent years and turning Taiwan into a major procurement center in Asia.

Special Events

With more than 200 machine tool builders and 1,000 component makers working together, the comprehensive supply chain in the central region of Taiwan, TAICHUNG, creates the one and only "Machine Tools Village" of the world.
